Naaba Ani Parents and Guardians,

As we are wrapping up week two of our students attending school virtually, we wanted to say thank you! We appreciate your continuous support through this new learning model. Although we miss seeing all of our students' faces in person, we are happy we have had the chance to see them online through our Google Classroom meets daily.

We wanted to send you a few reminders in hopes of continually making this a smoother transition for our students.

1. The live instruction (google meet/zoom) starts at 8:10. Please make sure students are logged on a few minutes before.
2. Students need to complete the daily question in their Google Classrooms each day in order to be marked present. Attendance is taken daily!
3. Students need to attend their core instruction google meets in order to participate in the live instruction from their teachers.
4. Students need to complete their assignments assigned to them in Google Classroom daily.

Please continue to reach out to your child's teacher if you have questions. Additionally, let us know how we can support you and your child in this new learning platform.

According to the Governor's press release yesterday, there is a possibility in the next couple of weeks we will be able to begin our hybrid learning model. (Students with the last names beginning with A-K will come to school on Mondays and Tuesdays and then complete Wednesday- Friday with their online learning from home through google classroom. Our students with their last names beginning with L-Z will come to the building Thursdays and Fridays, while completing their online learning at home Monday-Wednesday. The students that do not have internet will continue to complete the paper packets during their at home learning days.)

Please contact the school if your phone numbers or emails have changed as we will be sending out robocalls with more information about the hybrid model as soon as the state allows it.

Have a great weekend!
